

European Softball Champions of 2017

The Netherlands won both European Championships in this year's women's categories. Dutch senior women and U-16 women took the European titles home this year.

The Czech Republic won both European Championships in this year's men's categories. U-16 men took the first-ever title in their category and the U-19 men won their championship for the fourth time in a row.

For the first time in history of the Coed Slowpitch European Championships a non-British team won! The 11th European Slowpitch title and gold medals belong to Germany. The National Team of Germany beat Great Britain in the final game 20-9.
