Two weeks in October were dedicated to the improvement of softball coaching in Europe - the ESCA Camp took place in Diessen, the Netherlands.

European Softball Coaches Association (ESCA) started its first project - an international instructional camp for players and coaches from all over Europe. Craig Montvidas, as the Camp Instructor, prepared two five-day camps full of training sessions, workshops, and instructional lessons.

A total of 33 coaches, 50 players, and 13 instructors from 16 countries took part in two softball camps. Both camps turned out to be not only great clinics but also exceptional experience for all the attendants.

EUROPEAN SOFTBALL RANKINGS 2017

European Softball Rankings are now updated with the results of the 2017 season.

Italy is the new leader in Women's European Softball Rankings. The Czech Republic is still an inevitable leader of the men's category. Great Britain managed to maintain their first position despite not beating the Germans in the Slowpitch Championship final this year.
