

8 Tips for New BeeBall Leaders

Know your Players

Make sure that you as a leader knows everything about the needs and wishes of each individual player

Plan in advance

Make sure that you plan training and games. Be organized and know ahead of time what you want to achieve

Be aware of learning styles

Every player learns differently. Do not make the mistake of thinking that every player learns the same

Observe other Leaders

Meet other leaders, watch what they do and learn from them

Never stop learning

Keep learning how to become a better and more effective leader

Keep it simple

Do not make it harder than it is and be clear what you expect from your players

Be yourself

Do not try to copy other coaches. Be unique, be different and find your own way of coaching

Make it fun

Be the leader who motivates, inspires and makes the sport funny.
