Host town: Avigliana

Avigliana is a town in the Metropolitan City of Turin in the Piedmont region of Italy.

It is best known for two maar lakes, Lago Grande and Lago Piccolo. Also nearby is the massive Sacra di San Michele.

Host town: Torino

Torino is famous for its baroque and neoclassical buildings. The Po, the longest Italian river, crosses the town.

Turin's symbol is the Mole Antonelliana;
the town is characterized by big squares and cafès.
